Helensburgh Sailing Club - Dinghy Class Racing 2008

Racing will be provided for the following classes: -

- Handicap Dinghies with Asymmetric/Spinnaker
- Handicap Dinghies excl Topper
- Catamarans - Handicap (Small CATS)
- Junior/Cadet Handicap
- Novice Topper/Optimist

At the discretion of the Offshore Committee if entry numbers permit this may be amended at any time. Where there are sufficient entries separate classes will be created. Individual /class results will be provided when a class averages a turnout of >3.75 boats for a series.

Novices who are too experienced will be moved into the Junior/Cadet class at the Offshore committee's discretion

For all racing series, 60% of races will count (rounded up)

Race organisation: There are 20 Evenings & 26 Sundays of Club Racing in our extensive race programme. All entrants/crews are required to do 3 or 4 turns with race organisation during the season. Please ensure the race organisation experience form opposite is completed to assist the rota secretary.

Sailing Instructions and course cards: These will only be sent on receipt of fully completed race entry and race organisation forms. Laminated Course cards shall be A6 size (2 per entry). Duplicates (A6) will be available at a surcharge of £1.00 per course card. Anyone who requires the larger A4 sized version can obtain these from Tim Flatman/Stuart Nunn priced £2.00

Race entry fees: There has been no increase in entry fees since 2006

Wednesday Series: These are both cut back with 10 races each as light levels proved too low last year at the beginning and end of the season.

Summer Series: Has been once again given way to open sailing

Junior/Cadet Handicap Fleet: This is a single start for all boats however results those in their first full season of racing will be calculated separately as novices

Courses: Full details with Sailing Instructions. Generally Windward / Leeward
